Volume 3 • Issue 3

Dear Reader,

It is my great pleasure to congratulate the Principal, staff and students for a glorious academic session.

I would love to bring to notice the achievements of our students by the means of this newsletter.

This session has been busy for each one of us and at the school. Nevertheless our students have participated in all possible events, academic activities and co curricular programs

We are extremely proud of the progress they have made each year.

Since our inception, we have come a long way and our students have grabbed these opportunities provided to them for their benefits.

We as a school are very proud of their big and small achievements.

This edition of the messenger focuses on highlighting each and every achievement the students have made through their relentless hard work. Strength truly lies in the team (or I am as good as my team is) was beautifully showcased and I congratulate the school staff on their success.
